郭盛

智联招聘集团首席执行官

Evan GUO

CEO of Zhaopin Limited

郭盛毕业于上海交通大学，评为该校优秀毕业生，获工科学士学位，并同时获得理科学士学位。他于 1999 年取得美国西北大学凯洛格商学院工商管理硕士学位，并成为 Kellogg 历史上唯一获得荣誉毕业生称号的华人。他曾在麦肯锡公司有 7 年工作经验，1994 年成为麦肯锡最早在中国直接聘用的咨询顾问，并最终担任麦肯锡全球董事合伙人。在此期间，他数次经手操作了高科技企业在 Nasdaq 的成功上市。加入智联招聘之前，曾在美国贝尔斯登投资银行(纽约总部)收购与兼并部，任投资银行经理；担任普思科技公司首席执行官；A 股上市公司-中外运空运发展股份有限公司 CEO，中外运敦豪 (DHL) 董事。

郭盛 2010 年加入智联招聘。智联招聘是中国领先的职业发展平台，为用户的整个职业生涯提供相关职业及发展机会，成立 27 年来，拥有超过 2.3 亿职场人用户，累计合作 616 万企业用户，根据第三方调研统计全国职场人每 10 个人有 4 个人通过智联招聘找到工作。郭盛领导下与中国就业研究所联合推出最具参考价值的劳动力市场大数据 CIER 指数，并开展了丰富多样的社会公益活动，包括有“人力资源界奥斯卡”称号的中国年度最佳雇主评选、倡导职场平权的中国女性领导力高峰论坛、帮助大学生就业的“就业有位来”公益项目等等。

Evan GUO graduated with honors from Shanghai Jiao Tong University with a double bachelor's degrees in both engineering and science. In 1999, he received his MBA from Kellogg School of Management, Northwestern University, becoming the first student from China to graduate with distinction in the history of Kellogg. In 1994, Evan was one of the first analysts McKinsey & Co. hired directly in China. He worked for seven years at McKinsey & Co. and was promoted to partner. While at McKinsey & Co., he helped several Chinese high-tech companies go public on Nasdaq. Before joining Zhaopin, Evan's extensive experience also included working as an investment manager at Bear Stearns Investment Bank in New York, as CEO of Prosys Solutions, as CEO of Shanghai-listed Sinotrans Air Transportation Development Co., and as a director of DHL.

Evan initiated the concept of a “career development platform” to cover a job seeker's entire career lifecycle. He has established a comprehensive career platform for job seekers at Zhaopin that serves graduates, white-collar workers and high-end professionals. The platform provides evaluation, online recruitment, and training services through online, offline and mobile channels. Zhaopin aims to transform from being “a resume database” to “accelerating career development” and building China’s leading Human Capital Ecosystem to provide end-to-end service for 230 million white-collar job seekers.

Under Evan’s leadership, Zhaopin has worked with the China Institute for Employment Research (CIER) at Renmin University to release the quarterly CIER Employment Index Report, which has become a valuable reference on China’s labor market and a leading industry barometer for decision makers. Evan also initiated various CSR events for Zhaopin, including the “China Best Employer Award”, the "Oscar" of the human resources industry in China; the Women’s Leadership Forum; and an employment program to support college graduates.

中国工程院院士，中国职业技术教育学会副会长

WANG Fuming

Academician, Chinese Academy of Engineering;
Vice President, China Vocational and Technical Education Association

王复明，1957年3月生，河南沈丘县人。1987年博士毕业于大连理工大学。1996年获国家杰出青年科学基金。现任重大基础设施检测修复技术国家地方联合工程实验室主任，地下基础设施非开挖技术国际联合研究中心主任，中国非开挖技术协会主席，全国政协委员。

王复明教授长期从事基础工程设施安全维护理论与技术研究，在基础工程渗漏涌水防治和隐蔽病害诊治方面取得系统创新成果。他提出了构建土质堤坝柔性防渗体的新方法，建立了非水反应高聚物扩散理论，发明了堤坝及地下工程防渗堵涌高聚物注浆成套技术及装备。他建立了层状结构介电特性及力学特性反演理论，提出了基于无损检测的高聚物精细注浆方法，开发了高速公路、高铁无砟轨道及地下管道快速非开挖修复技术。研究成果广泛应用于基础工程防渗修复及应急抢险，解决了多项重大工程难题，倡导成立“工程医院”科教融合开放共享平台。

王复明教授获国家技术发明二等奖1项、国家科技进步二等奖、三等奖各1项，并获国际非开挖学术研究奖和河南省科学技术杰出贡献奖。2015年当选中国工程院院士。

Prof. WANG Fuming was born in Shenqiu, Henan Province, in March 1957. In 1987, he attained the PhD degree from Dalian University of Technology and was awarded the National Science Fund for Outstanding Young Scholars in 1996. Titles of Prof. WANG are as follows: director of National Local Joint Engineering Laboratory of Major Infrastructure Testing and Rehabilitation Technology (NLJELMITRT), the director of International Joint Research Center for Trenchless Technology of Underground Infrastructure (IJRCTTUI), the chairman of China Society for Trenchless Technology (CSTT), and the member of national committee of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference (CPPCC).

Prof. WANG's research focus on the theory and technology for the safety maintenance of infrastructure engineering, and he has achieved systematic innovations in two aspects of foundation engineering, the prevention and treatment of leakage and water gushing, and the diagnosis and rehabilitation of hidden diseases. The detailed innovation achievements are as follows: a new method for constructing flexible impervious wall for dams was proposed; a diffusion theory of non-aqueous reactive polymer was developed; a complete set of polymer grouting technology and equipment for preventing water seepage and gushing of dams and underground engineering was invented; an inverse analysis model for the layered structure with dielectric and mechanical properties was established; a precise polymer grouting method based on non-destructive testing results was proposed; and a fast non-excavation rehabilitation technology for expressways, ballastless tracks and underground pipelines was exploited. He has provided successful solutions for a series of major engineering problems, and therefore his innovation achievements are widely used for anti-seepage rehabilitation and emergency rescue in foundation engineering. Furthermore, an open and sharing platform coupling research and teaching, "engineering hospital", was funded under Prof. WANG's advocacy.

Prof. WANG obtained several national prizes, including: 1. One Second Class Prize of National Technological Invention Award; 2. One Second Class and One Third Class Prize of National Science and Technology Progress Award. In addition, Prof. WANG was the No-Dig Winner of the International Society for Trenchless Technology (ISTT) and the winner of Henan Science and Technology Outstanding Contribution Award in 2011. Based on the above achievements, Prof. WANG was elected as an academician of the Chinese Academy of Engineering in 2015.

In 1994, Dr. ZHANG founded China's first modern supermarket Wumart in Beijing and developed it into the largest supermarket chain in north China and one of the biggest retailers in China with over 1800 outlets of fresh grocery hypermarkets and supermarkets, convenience stores, department stores and home improvement formats in China with annual sales over RMB 100 billion (USD15.3 billion).

Since founded by Dr. ZHANG in 2014, the omni-channel retail digital platform Dmall has developed distributed ecommerce solutions and retail operation OS system, empowering supermarkets to become digitalized retailers with online-offline integration. Dmall is ranked as the 7th most popular mobile retailing app in China, and witnesses its 190 million registered users and 23 million MAUs increasing continuously. Dmall has empowered over 130 supermarket chains with over 15,000+ brick-and-mortar stores to become omni-channel retailers in China and the Asia-Pacific region.

Dr. ZHANG is a successful consolidator of Chinese retail industry with extensive experience in post-M&A integration and synergies building. In 2020, Dr. ZHANG and Wumart successfully completed the deal of 2 billion euros to hold 80% stake in the Fortune 500 Germany-based METRO's China business. Since 2015, Wumart was also highly acclaimed for its buy-and-turnaround story of the China business of B&Q acquired from Kingfisher, the UK-based home improvement retailer.

Dr. ZHANG serves as Rotating President of Yabuli China Entrepreneurs Forum(CEF), Honorary Chairman of the China General Chamber Of Commerce, and Chairman of Nankai University Alumni Entrepreneur Association. He was also honored as "Top 10 Economic Person of the Year", "Top 10 Person of Chinese Enterprises", "Person of the Year in China's Retail Industry", "China's 25 Most Influential Business Leaders" and "China's 50 Most Influential Business Leaders" in recent years.
